

SERIES: THE BIBLE FOR GROWN-UPS

Episode 1: "Last Things First"

The story of how the world got the Bible begins with a single event—an event so extraordinary it was worth writing about.

|                   | QUESTIONS   | NOTES |
|-------------------|---|-------|
| 01>>>> | How were you first introduced to the Bible?   |       |
| 02>>>> | Has your view of the Bible changed as you've gotten older? If so, how?  |       |
| 03                | If you had the chance to readthe personal journal of someonewhose life has influenced yours,who would you choose? Whywould their stories and ideas bemeaningful to you? |       |
| 04                | When it comes to faith, the Bible, or God, have you found yourself saying, "I just don't believe it anymore"? What is the "it" you no longer believe?                                       |       |
| 05>>>>        | If John's account of the life ofJesus was all you had, would itchange the way you view theBible? Would it change whatyou believe about faith?                               |       |

BOTTOM LINE

Christianity is not the result of something that was written; it's the result of something that happened—the resurrection of Jesus.
