

SERIES: THE BIBLE FOR GROWN-UPS

Episode 2: "In the Beginning"

Throughout history, there have been plenty of theories about how the world was created.

Moses' account in the book of Genesis stands in startling contrast to them all.

	QUESTIONS	NOTES
01 >>>>	"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth" (Gen. 1:1). What comes to mind when you think about this verse?
02 >>>>	Andy mentioned that, in Genesis, Moses is not trying to explain how God created the heavens and the earth. Moses is making the case that God (not the gods) created the universe. Does this distinction change the way you think about the creation account? If so, how?
03	God decided every man, woman, and child would be born with dignity because they were made in his image. How does this statement resonate with you?
04	Does the new worldview described in Genesis offer you any helpful insights when it comes to life's big questions of "Why are you here?" and "Why do you matter?" Explain.

BOTTOM LINE

You're here on purpose, with a purpose.
