

SERIES: THE BIBLE FOR GROWN-UPS

Episode 4: "For the World"

The Bible did not create Christianity. That means peace with God is possible even when we don't have peace with everything in the Bible.

QUESTIONS

- Do you find yourself getting hung up on Old Testament ideas or applications? What expectations and standards can you let go of because of Jesus' new covenant?
- Andy mentioned we should read
  the Old Testament for inspiration and motivation, but not application.
   Do you agree? Why or why not?
- Based on Jesus' new covenant command, what should be the primary focus of Christians' lives?
- What makes the idea of "loving one another as Christ loved us" difficult to embrace? How do Christians fall short in this area?
- Jesus' early followers based their faith on his extraordinary resurrection. What would happen if you were to revisit or begin your faith there, too?

NOTES

BOTTOM LINE

We can have peace with God without having peace with everything in the Bible.
